

OLD IRONSIDES ON THE WAY TO BOSTON.

THE HISTORIC SHIP TOWED OUT OF PORTSMOUTH HARBOR ON HER ONE HUNDREDTH BIRTHDAY.

Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 20.—Hundreds of spectators lined the water front here to-day to witness the departure of the United States frigate Constitution for Boston. The tugs Leyden and Piscataqua took the historic old ship in tow at 1:30 p.m. As she left the Navy Yard there were toots of whistles, cheering and the firing of a salute. She is in command of Boatwails Haley, with thirty men on board. Captain Very, who is in command of the expedition to Boston, will release a carrier pilot, even if he might give information how the vessel is behaving. It is expected that she will reach Boston to-morrow noon.

The old craft was launched at Boston one hundred years ago to-day, and shall be kept in a state of preservation at that port.

LEWIS COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

Lowville, N. Y., Sept. 20.—The Lewis County Republican Convention yesterday nominated Addison L. Clark of Copenhagen, a member of Assembly; William C. Smith of Port Jervis, for County Clerk; James H. Tamlin of Copenhagen, and G. G. Harrington of Lewis, for Coroners.

LOCAL BUSINESS COMPLICATIONS.

The New-York and Canada Lumber Company, of No. 5 Broadway, has applied to the Supreme Court for a voluntary dissolution of the corporation. An order to show cause has been issued for December 21, and Charles H. Stoddard has been appointed referee in the matter. The company was incorporated on September 21, 1894, with a capital stock of $25,000. All the debts have been paid, except a claim for rent, which is being adjusted, and the company has assets left amounting to $55. Guy E. Robinson was president and H. C. Richards treasurer.

Sheriff-Sheriff Mulvane yesterday received two executions against State dealer in an arrangement. No. 5 Warren-st., aggregating $367. in favor of William J. Ryan, on demand notes.

Judgment for $382 was obtained yesterday by default against Robert P. Porter of No. 36 Broadway, who was formerly Superintendent of Census, in favor of the S. C. Becker & Co. Porter. It was dated April 5, 1895, payable two years after date to the order of Mr. Bower, for $42. Mr. Bower informed us that he delivered it to S. C. Becker with Special Agency. Mr. Porter, in his answer, admitted making the note, but declared that it was obtained from him by deceit. When the case was called for trial yesterday Mr. Porter failed to respond.
